

We found more than 100 in the field, 9 men and women, most of them at work; some with the hoes and spades which they had received from the Missionary Stores, and others with wooden tools. Very considerable portions of land were cleared and broken up in different places, and made ready for planting, since our last visit.

Shunghee has built a small village here, on the ground which he is cultivating, for the accommodation of his working people.
We visited this Village. He was gone to Kiddie Kiddee. We found his three Wives at home: two of them had been prisoners of War. His head Wife, who is blind, told us, with a smile, that Shunghee was not so kind, in his attentions to her, since he had taken the two New Wives, who were present.
His head Wife has a very fine family of Children.

In this Village, I observed the Heads of eleven
