

in that very spot where so many of our countrymen were sacrificed and eat by the natives - The Rev^d Mr Turner and Mr Hobbs set off as soon as they could to Wanga roa by land taking with them a native Guide in order to see their colleagues and to consult measures for the removal of themselves and baggage to their intended station. It appeared very providential that the Rev^d S Leigh had fixed upon this place for their missionary labours as they might keep a communication with the missionaries of the C M S by land and be of mutual advantage to each other. I now determined to settle the Rev^d H Williams on the South side of the Bay of Islands about 16 miles from Thoddee Thoddee and 12 from Orangechoo - at Wytanghee or Poyheea - After spending the Day with Mr Hall I returned on board the Brampton in the Evening -
